

506 AD

Council of Agde

Held in 506 A.D. at Agde (Agathia) in Languedoc and presided over by St. Caesarius of Arles; it published fifty Canons, or rules on Church discipline.

Probably 2 Feb 506

The new Kingdom: Regnum Tolosanum

Breviarium Alescianum

Feb 2, 506

The Braviarium Alacconium was probably promulgated on Feb 2, 506

506

Theodoric, who as Odovacri's successor
had reorganized the RAETIAN mountain regim "as the bulwark and protective barrier of Italy took the threatened ALAMANNI under his protection
in 506

506

1912 Dates J-BK

LEX ROMANA VISIGOTORUM

or the "Breviary of Alaric". Issued at AIRE in GASCOIG by authority of Alaric II.

This was the chief authority
in western Europe until the eleventh century.

Sept 10, 506

Aloric II summoned a Council at AGDE
the protocols of which were signed on Sept 10, 506.

This was Aloric II's attempt to bring about a reconciliation between the Arian Gothic minority and the Catholic Roman majority

506

Bishop Cyriacius of Arles
presided over the Council of AGO.E.

Sept 10, 506

the assembled church fathers signed the protocol of the Council of ~~AGDE~~ AGDE.

Roughly  $\frac{3}{4}$  of the bishops of Gaul either participated in the synod in person or sent their representatives to SEPTIMANIA

Agde put an end to the series of measures that suggest a reversal of Eusebius' anti-church
policy

10 Sep 506

The new Visigoths: Regnum Tolosanum

SYNOD of ALDE

506

BREVIARY OF ALARIC

monk law